

Packing A Picnic

Sumner Peck

2 Hours

Grab an empty picnic basket and hit the road for Sumner Peck on Friant. This delightful area offers sweeping picturesque views of their vineyard and surrounding countryside. The only thing that might compare to the view is the farm fresh produce and delectable wines. Time to fill up that picnic basket with your favorite fruits and one of their magnificent bottle of wines.

www.sumnerpeckranch.com

Woodward Park

2 Hours

With your basket full and stomachs on empty, head down to Woodward Park. It's finally time to bite into all of the amazing produce you have "harvested." After you are done eating, you have many options available at your fingertips including touring a Japanese-inspired garden, feeding the flock of geese or maybe just laying underneath one of the many shady trees. If you love adventure or sports, you might enjoy playing a round of disc golf, cycling on the Eaton trail or setting up your own activity.

Vino and Friends

1 Hour

In close proximity to Woodward Park lies Vino and Friends, a farm to fork restaurant and wine tasting room. This popular destination is a great place to taste a variety of local wines and have a fabulous dinner with local produce. With its relaxing atmosphere and tremendous service, it's a proper way to conclude the day.

www.vinoandfriends.com

Photo credit:
Diane Williams- Shinzen Gardens

